

COLOURS OF THE EARTH NUFARU COMMUNE

Tulcea County

COMUNA NUFARU

Nufaru Commune is situated in north-east part of Tulcea County at 12 km from Tulcea city, close to Danube Delta, north side of Nufaru Commune is along Saint George Arm of Danube River. Population of Nufaru commune is aproximative 3000 peoples.

Tulcea County

COMUNA NUFARU

Descriere generala

Nufaru Commune is formed from 4 villages: Nufaru, Malcoci, Victoria and Ilganii de Jos. Nufaru village is the center of commune on the county road 222C.

Tulcea County
COMUNA NUFARU

Descriere generala

Nufaru village is situated on the right side of Saint George Arm (the oldest Arm of Danube river). The oldest archeological sign shows that the village exists since 1000 After Christ. The historical name of Nufaru village is Prislava, a bizantin name.

Tulcea County
COMUNA NUFARU

Vestigii

Nufaru Commune is one of the oldest commune from Tulcea County, especially Nufaru village which was built on an ancient bizantin castle.

Tulcea County

COMUNA NUFARU

Vestigii

Nufaru Soil

Soils in Nufaru commune are in general sandy and argilous. Peoples cultivate especially wheat, corns, soy, sun flowers. Using of chemical fertilizers is reduce, peoples are using natural fertilizers, as a result of farming activity. In the hills area, are lands expose to erosion and land sliding and for preventing this, is necessary to plant trees. This activity is already initiated by local authority.

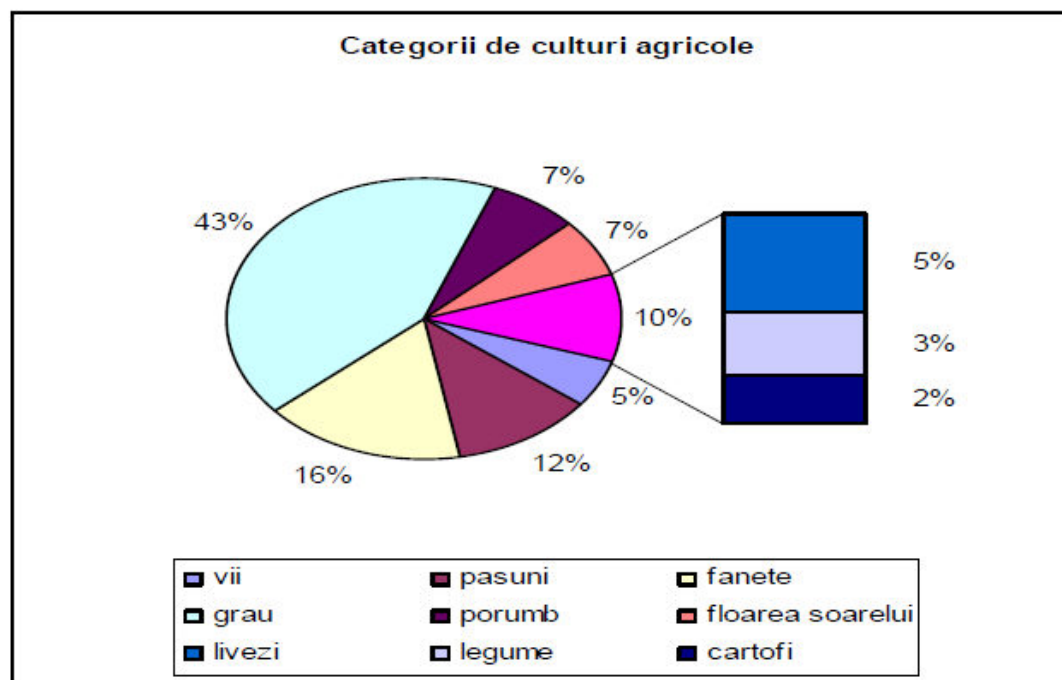

Municipality of Nufaru is trying to access funds from EU and Romanian Government for protection against flooding, infrastructures; citizens get funds for agriculture. In 2012, Municipality of Nufaru, repossessed citizens with over 400 hectares of land taken from Romanian state.

Nufaru Soils (Archeological section)

USAGE OF AGRICULTURAL LAND IN NUFARU

Teren agricol [ha]/ Tipuri de culturi agricole
arabil	livezi	vii	pasuni	fanete	grau	porumb	cartofi	floarea soarelui	legume	altele
3303	120	140	300	421	1080	180	60	180	75	-

PLACE OF SAMPLING FOR NUFARU SOIL

